B. BUSINESS ITEMS
1.	Special Guest – St. Vincent De Paul Christmas Campaign Gift Certificates Preferred	Violet Funk, Judy Soucy
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• St. Vincent De Paul new donation request explanation. Gift Certificates (GC) - Food Basics, Walmart, No Frills --- receivers of gifts get to choose their own gifts. Not all people celebrate Christmas in the same manner. They recommended the type of GC to give.</li> <li>• Collect any foods donated and give to The Salvation Army food bank. The St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic church does not have storage for food. Parish supports Salvation Army food Bank.</li> <li>• Adrianna spoke regarding gift card... The giver is being excluded from teaching children, making an event of the giving. We should find a way to give in trust and still include our kids.</li> <li>• Mrs. Falconi extends her thoughts on the giving. We have to believe that all donations would be put to good use.</li> <li>• Procedure of gift giving stays the same. Attach receipts to gift cards.</li> <li>• Sue would like a letter to give to parents for St. Vincent De Paul.</li> </ul>
2.	Vice Principal’s Update	Patrick Cahill
	Eco schools movement – is a big deal, Boomerang lunch – take your lunch garbage home. This is an effort to keep the volume of garbage low in the school.  Recycling must be done properly. Students should empty, rinse containers before adding into recycling.

	CCCSC meeting was very informative. Guest Speaker Fr. L. Amaral, Pastor, St. Mary Church, Brampton. His speech reminded us to pass on the faith we each have inside, say thanks when cut off by another driver on the road, make decision to smile and be happy, because Jesus loves us! Front entrance not wheel chair accessible – button has been installed for automatic door opening – 1 month turnaround. Great action! Teachers have walkie-talkies for instant communication. AST Classroom had walls painted, holes fixed – Half wall will be secured for more safety for Stanley cup visited All Saints School, every teacher and class took picture - Mr. Borrow had 3 hour window to bring the Stanley Cup. Some kids were very excited. School took picture – put pictures up on display. Accommodate any parent who wishes to have a copy of a picture. V.P. – is on loan to St. Simon Stock as acting Principal for 1 month. Main Principal is in recovery from surgery. V.P. will be back to us soon. He will miss the kids at All Saints CS!
3.	Community / Safety Rep	Adriana Stranges
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Neighbourhood Watch meeting was successful – 80 attended.</li> <li>• Safe City Mississauga will contact to teach how to setup Neighbourhood Watch program.</li> <li>• Safety academy – 6 WK safety program - community was interested in having program run out of All Saints. The commitment is required.</li> <li>• Kids should be taught to exercise safety with phones and tech devices.</li> <li>• Neighbourhood Watch – learning – acknowledges the door, do not open it – e.g.: Dad! Someone at the door. This makes outsider aware that someone is home.</li> <li>• No stats available to indicate break-ins</li> </ul>
4.	Parish Rep	Barry Derks
	Key highlights Parish Reps meeting - Parents are responsible for the school, not the Church. Parish Rep. is to represents the Parish to the School. Concerns regarding Sacraments and confirmation dates... Monday night confirmation – has been set and Closed – pursue the weekend date for next year.
