

- Changes in the names and numbers of Learning Skill have taken place. New descriptions are available on the report card.
- Two comments only: student strengths and next steps for improvement.
- Parents will see on the report card that subject teachers can request an interview.
- No final average at the bottom of the page.
- Principal signature is now on all report cards issued.
- Teachers for grades 9 and 10 courses ONLY may use the letter i at midterm and final report cards if they have insufficient data to generate a mark.
- Grades 11 and 12 can have a blank on the report card at midterm if there are insufficient marks. There must be a final report card mark.
- Median mark now refers to median for all sections of that subject in the school.
- Parents/guardian must sign and return response form to the homeroom teacher for mid-term and final report cards.
