

WHMIS Custodial Training

Name _____ Employee # _____

1. Which of the following should be done before working with any new chemical?
(Circle all that apply.)

- a) Read manufacturers instructions
- b) Obtain instruction from your supervisor
- c) Experiment with different ways of using the product.
- d) Ensure you have the proper PPE.

2. Given the following symbols, state their meaning.

3. What do you do with a chemical spill that you do not feel comfortable cleaning up yourself?

- a) Isolate the area and notify your school's Principal or designate.
- b) Clean it up anyway.
- c) Call in another custodian to assist.
- d) Use lots of paper towels.

4. Which of the following hazard symbols would apply to gasoline?

5. Which of the following are examples of Biohazardous infectious items?

- a) Pesticides
- b) Used Epi-pens
- c) Samples from biology class
- d) Cleaning chemicals

6. When should you wash your hands to avoid chemical exposure?

- a) After using or mixing chemicals
- b) Before Eating lunch
- c) Before taking breaks
- d) Before going home at the end of the day
- e) All of the above

7. What are 3 ways a chemical can enter the body?

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

8. If you needed more information on a chemical product where would you look?
(Circle all that apply.)

- a) Consult the MSDS.
- b) Ask your custodial supervisor.
- c) Ask your friend.
- d) Ask your school's Principal.

9. Should you use a vacuum cleaner to clean up a discharged fire extinguisher?

Yes No

10. You should never use a mop and bucket for cleaning up Blood and Body fluid spills.

True False