During this Advent Season, as we prepare our hearts for the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ, I would like to take this opportunity to thank parents and guardians for choosing a Catholic education for your children.

As we approach Christmas, it’s a good time to reflect on the very busy, but very successful start to the school year. Our schools enjoy strong relationships with our families, local parishes and the community at large, and continue to be safe, caring, healthy and inclusive places to learn and to work. We continue to see strong performances by our students across the board in terms of EQAO scores and graduation rates, which are among the highest in the province. But we’re not resting on our laurels by any means, and we continue to work hard to make sure that each student has every opportunity to achieve success.

As we celebrate this sacred season, I thank you for supporting Catholic education, and wish you all a Blessed Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.
