

Guitar Club

The guitar club gives an opportunity to those who have already received some basic instruction to have fun with their guitars in a group, strumming to a variety of songs and rhythms. They learn more chords and chord alternatives and increase their ability to make smooth chord changes, as well as develop a smooth strumming style. Developing these abilities can serve the players and others throughout life.