

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 3, 2009

1. All those interested in going to New York during March Break 2010, must attend a very important meeting this Thursday November 5 in RM 111 immediately after school.
2. Take Our Kids to Work day takes place this Wednesday. All grade 9 students are expected to participate. Grade 9 homeroom teachers are to keep signed permission forms and a class list of those participating to be handed in on TODAY at the end of period 1.
3. Any students who are interested in attending the first curling try out and have their permission form signed please sign up outside of Mitch's office today.
4. Attention Writer's Ink. There is a writing club meeting today after school in the library. Don't forget your writing!