

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2009

1. This is a reminder that Student Council's lollipop fundraiser courtesy of Candy-Tree is going to continue starting today. Each lollipop will be sold for $1 and can be purchased at the SAC office during both lunches. You will have a choice of orange, root beer, cherry, pina colada, bubble gum, mango, raspberry, green apple, and cotton candy flavoured lollipops. So come on down and contribute to this great fundraiser.
2. Also, the Candy guessing game is still continuing, and the winners will be announced today. Come to the SAC office during both lunches, if you want to guess how much candy is in the jar; each guess is 25 cents.
3. Semi formal is on its way and you won't want to miss out. The date has changed from Nov. 27 to Dec 4th. Join us this year at Le Treport for a truly magical Winter Affair. Tickets will be $50 and will be sold during periods 3A and 3C on Nov. 10 to 13 ONLY.
4. Congratulations to the girls' flag football team for their quarter final win against Joan of Arc yesterday. The girls battled rain, sleet, snow, ice, wind and lots of mud to come out on top 12 to 6. Girls are reminded of their mandatory practice today after school on our home field. GO Girls Go!!!
5. An important note to all students registered in the semester 2 CO-OP program; you are to speak to Mr.Bracco, Mr.Dziedzina or Mr.DiSaverio ASAP for much required further consultation!!