

November 9, 2011

Announcements

Sports

School Related

There will be a final tryout for varsity boys indoor soccer today after school on the field at 2:45pm.

1

The senior boys hockey team will be selling St. Michaels Majors tickets to any students, family or friends who would be interested. The game is on November 11th at the Hershey centre vs. the Barrie Colts. Please support the team and see any team member soon to buy tickets.

Congratulations goes out to the Jr. Boys Volleyball team for completing a great season. The boys were able to make the playoffs this year by placing 3rd in a very tough division. Last night the boys played a very strong team in St. Fammile but came up just short. Better luck next year. Could all the boys please return their washed jerseys to Mr. Fallon ASAP!

2

This is a reminder to all drumline students that you are released at 10:30 today in order to prepare for our performance at 11:00. Please come directly to the music room with your drumline shirt.

November 9, 2011

	3	Are you applying to University this fall? Want to learn about unique programs offered at universities such as McMaster, University of Toronto, and Waterloo? On Friday, November 11 th at 7:00 p.m. The Credit Valley Hospital will hold an interactive University Mini Forum where student representatives from various faculties such as McMaster Health Sciences and Waterloo Engineering will be sharing their experiences and information about their respective program. $2 admission to support The Credit Valley Hospital. To register, please email volunteeryouth@cvh.on.ca
	4	Burger King is offering scholarships! You could win a 50,000, $50,000, 5,000 or 1,000 dollar scholarships. See the information posted outside guidance.
	5	Attention all grade 12's and grade 12 teachers. Five colleges from the GTA will be here at St. Martins during period 4 today. We will call you down around 1:20 --- please be ready!!!
	6
	7

November 9, 2011

	9
	10
	11
	12
	13
	14
	15	