

The Specialist High Skills Major (SHSM) program in Arts and Culture allows students to have an opportunity to develop artistic skills, have access to training and certification, and explore their interests through connections with community, industry and institutions

The pictures below are of this year's SHSM students earning various certifications.

