

Final task for Christianity

Groups and institutions (branches) of the Christian Church)

Even though the evaluation of this final task is individual, you will be working with another student. (Team of 2 maximum) Each person will be responsible for specific parts of the task (both research and presentation).

Work to do:

1. Pick a group (branch) from the list below.
2. Research information about your specific group using your textbook and other sources (books, internet, articles) to learn more.
3. Organize your information and prepare a multimedia presentation (you can use the following methods: exhibit, bulletin board display, poster, timeline, overhead, photo essay, video, simulation game, slide show, time capsule, comic strip, skit, Web page, cartoon, project cube, demonstration, computer program presentation, advertisement, book or magazine cover, scrapbook, puppet show or brochure) Regardless of which method you choose, you have to produce it yourself, you CAN'T use something already made. Be creative and interesting! Teach us what we do not know.
4. Practice it many, many times.
5. The day of your presentation, make sure you have previously organized and/or signed out all the equipment you need.
- 6.
7. Your presentation should be between 12-15 minutes and should communicate the most comprehensive and interesting information possible.
