- E. Information and Committee Updates - NIL
- F. Other
1. G. Ogundele: Do we anticipate any change to our Sexual Education curriculum with the new government?
S. Steer: More information will be provided by the Ministry. Religious Education and Family Life are not being revised.
  2. D. Langley: Concern that the parent survey seems to be slanted towards STEAM.
S. Hobin: We have not had concrete information. Our goal is to have all grades working towards STEAM. Presently we have coding in some schools, down the road we would like to ensure it is board wide.

S. Steer: Instructional Support Teachers (ISTs) and EGELTs work collaboratively for fluid activity through all grades

3. C. Cameron: Expressed her concern regarding initiatives for black students. Recommended a good resource for teachers The Guide for White Women Who Teach Black Boys

S. Steer: Equity data has informed a board goal of setting equity and inclusive team leads at each school.

Student voice is part of the equity building and planning. The Well-Being Action Plan will be shared at the January 10, 2019 CCCSC meeting.

4. K. Dancy: How can we improve communication of school activities to the church communities?

S. Hobin: Will speak to Director about sharing board information more periodically.
