This virtual Book Club series will provide a variety of literature that will engage students, spark curiosity, inspire life-long learners and validate personal stories and experiences. Each session will include a book reading, discussion and a story studio experience to follow. Students will engage in thought provoking discussions and then creating a response using various creative materials to display their story and connections.

The Book Club is free to families at no cost. A zoom link will be provided once you register.

The Book Club would be open to students and their families currently enrolled in Grade 3-6.

REGISTRATION CLOSSES MARCH 9TH, 2023

Registration is limited.
