

Father Michael Goetz Resource Center

Web Links by Subject – Hospitality (Gr. 10)

Reference Books / Non Fiction Books

- ✂ The World Cookbook for Students (REF 641.59 JAC)
An encyclopedia with brief introduction of eating style and a collection of recipes from countries around the world, from A to Z.
- ✂ A Taste of the World: featuring the best recipes from around the globe (REF 641.59 TAS)
Series: Cultures of the World
Use the Library Catalogue to search for titles of this series and select the country of your interest.
- ✂ Series: Cultural Profiles (306 CUL)
Brief introduction on countries and culture, including holidays, spiritual life and way of eating.

Internet Search Engines:

- 📍 About.com at <http://www.about.com/food> > Click "World/Regional Cuisine" on the menu and select the regional cuisine of your interest. A collection of articles and recipes is available.
- 📍 Google
Search for the official website of tourism board or office of the selected country. Those websites usually include articles on the cultural events, festivals and cuisine.

Internet Websites:

- 📍 Countries and their Cultures at <http://www.everyculture.com/>
Locate the country of your interest using the alphabetical list. Scroll down to the middle of the article and find the section on Food in Daily Life, Food Customs at Ceremonial Occasions.
- 📍 Food in Every Country at <http://www.foodbycountry.com>
The website includes a list of countries with information on Food for Religious and Holiday Celebrations, and recipes.
- 📍 All Recipes at <http://allrecipes.com/Recipes/World-Cuisine/>
Use the pull-down menu to expand your search by region for recipes.
- 📍 Food.com with recipes categorized based on the origination, or style of cooking at:
<http://www.food.com/recipes/cuisine>
Select your choice from the sliding menu bar.