

Les Grandes Religions: Beliefs, Issues, and Religious Traditions, HRT 3MF
Grade 11 – University/College Preparation

This course enables students to discover what others believe and how they live, and to appreciate their own unique heritage. Students will learn about the teachings and traditions of a variety of religions, and connections between religion and the development of civilizations, the place and function of religion in human experience, and the influence of a broad range of religions on contemporary society. This course also introduces students to skills used in researching and investigating world religions. This course will be taught in the French language.

Prerequisite: None